A CARD.

HAVING been consulted by numerous citizens of Raleigh on the coming election for Mayor of the City, and finding that there does exist a great dissatisfaction with regard to the present incumbent, and after being strongly solicited, I have consented and do through this medium announce myself as an independent Republican candidate for the Mayoralty of the city of Raleigh for the year 1870. I will say no more at present, a ping that a favorable opportunity may be presented for me to address my fellow citizens on the subject.

A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,

BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Charleston, S. C.; the Siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volumne of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period and that there was no work to supply its place, it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

PRICES:—Handsomely bound in Cloth, $4 00.

BENCH AND BAR.

It may be thought that we should allow a little respite to the Bench and the Bar, and not parade them so often before the public. Would that oblivion's curtain could be drawn forever over their conduct and history for the last four years. The Bench and Bar of North Carolina always inculcated the best moral principles and precepts among the people.

The Bench once had the veneration, while the Bar had the admiration of the people of North Carolina. The people have lost all their veneration for the one, and much of their admiration for the other. The progress of human degeneracy was never so rapid before, except, perhaps, during the French revolution. The principles of moral obligation are sure to be relaxed, if not destroyed, by war. Our late war was no exception to this rule; every class of society felt its blighting effects; none felt it more than the Bar. It was the Bar that furnished so much worthless and unworthy material for the Bench.

If any one of the people retain a feeling the least akin to veneration for any member of the Judiciary of our State, (save and excepting Judge Mitchell,) we desire to know which one it is.

If any one of the people did not, by the dirty, doubling, inconsistent and contradictory conduct of Cantwell, Dick, Settle, Rodman, Starbuck, Cloud, Lassiter, Winston, Reade, Barringer, (both of them, Victor and Rufus,) Badham, Coleman and Jones, not to mention Billy Henderson and Chicken Stephens, lose confidence in the Bar, then we wish to know which one of the people it was.

In the fierce struggle now going on between virtue and vice, falsehood and truth, honesty and roguery, we have seen members of the Bar, on the side of truth, doubt, hesitate, and then go over to falsehood and error for the sake of a Judgship.—But our purpose in this article was not to throw reproach upon the Bench or the Bar.

The waste and desolation which Sherman in his unchristian march, spread over our fields and cities, was nothing compared with the moral desolation diffused by the war through every branch of society and especially the Bar.

We know the Bench and Bar are both aware of the great loss they have sustained in the good opinion of the people; they can recover their loss as soon as they return to their old principles and become what they once were. In the last argument between the Bench and Bar about the rule for contempt, we did injustice to the Bench by saying it was knocked down by the Bar. In this we we were in error; Col. Ruffin did not knock Judge Dick down as we heretofore stated.

The collision took place in the office of Mr. Scott, in Greensboro', Judge Dick refused to allow Col. Ruffin to appear before him, until he should answer the rule in the case of B. F. Moore and others; as soon as he had disposed of the case—he announced to Col. Ruffin that his connection with the case as Judge was now over, and added, "are you mad Col. Ruffin? What do you think of my ruling?" Col. Ruffin said, "I think it an infamous, wicked, tyrannical rule; left to yourself, I don't think you would have made it. You do it to bolster up others and at the behest of party."—Judge Dick denied the soft impeachment, and said he "was not influenced by party in his decisions, and the man who said he was, uttered a falsehood." Upon this opinion of the Bench, the Bar struck, inflicting two severe blows, one between the eyes, which deprived the Judge of his spectacles, and the other between the nose and mouth. Being near sighted, the loss of his spectacles put the Judge at great disadvantage in the settlement of the rule.—Instead of seizing upon Col. Ruffin, the Judge in his blindness, seized upon a chair, which Mr. Scott took from him, and so the rule was answered.

This is the first Judge ever whipped in North Carolina. Some five years before the Revolution, the Regulators in Orange lynched the Judges and the Bar. That was a lesson and correction which lasted until this present writing, when it again becomes necessary to chastise the Bench.—"Let us have peace."

THE COMING DEMOCRATIC LEADER.—Judge Thurman, of Ohio, who succeeded to the seat lately vacated by Mr. Wade, has given indications by his numerous and ready utterances of the past two days that the Democracy has at last found its Coming Man. That diminutive body in the Senate has suffered a serious loss by the defeat of Mr. Hendricks, and its leadership has hitherto been uncertain. That doubt has now been dispelled, and Judge Thurman stands forth as the most authoritative exponent of Democracy in our highest legislative body. His speeches yesterday indicated remarkable acuteness as a debater, and showed the ex Chief Justice of Ohio to be an accomplished parliamentary tactician. His unfailing courtesy toward his opponents, his frankness and fairness in conceding every legitimate inference from their facts, will undoubtedly give him great personal popularity even with the Senatorial majority, who recognize him as a foeman worthy of their steel.—Wash. Chronicle.

A LETTER SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY GOVERNOR HOLDEN TO HIS FRIEND, GEN. LITTLEFIELD, IN HIS EXILE.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Raleigh, N. C.

My Dear General:—I saw a notice of your arrival in Tallahassee, and afterward your advent into Montgomery. With what joy did I receive the news of your safe departure from Florida! I thought your venturing there was hazardous, but what, dear General, is too perilous for a Union soldier?

How did you leave my dear friend, Gov. Read? That republican traitor, Conant, thought to wound him in honor, by charging that he had been bribed; but our friends here do not believe it, and even if it were so, they would not believe it. So, false or true, it can't hurt the Governor or the party. That is so much for character, and our party know how to value it. You, yourself, General, know how to appreciate that blessing.

We have had great difficulties here since you left. You could heal them if you were here, but when it will be safe for you to return I cannot tell.

Our friends in the Legislature defeated Durham's resolution to send an investigating Committee to New York. O, my friend, we were in a straight for awhile, when our friends thoughtlessly let the resolution pass, and it was a difficult task to undo the mischief, but we did it, and the resolution was rescinded. It is true this blunder hurt us, but the investigation in New York would have hurt us worse.—Moore, of Chowan, is a glorious fellow.—He was always a Union man at heart, but was led astray by Rodman, and overpersuaded to lead the Chowan militia in defence of Roanoke Island. He failed to drive the federals from Roanoke, but he drove Jarvis, Durham, and that slippery fellow, Pou, (we'll have to watch him,) and their allies, from the investigation. Yes, Moore is your friend, and he gave substantial proof of it in our late visit to New York, as well as in his masterly movement in delaying, in fact, I may say, defeating the investigation. He does not expect it, I know, but I think it would become you to make him some valuable present, as a token of your appreciation of his services.

Pike's a trump, too. I never commissioned a more meritorious officer, excepting perhaps, Capt. Booker. He uses up that scoundrel, Joe Turner, every day. He laughs at him, dogs him, blackguards him, and makes all manner of fun of him. Turner can't stand it, and has left the city again. You know ridicule is the best argument in the world, and Pike's a hand at it, sure. It does me much good, each morning, to read his fine samples of wit and ridicule, as I sip my morning coffee.

When you left, the SENTINEL advertised you, offering $50,000 reward for you, as you have doubtless seen. Turner left, the other day, and Pike advertised one cent reward for him, and had the contumacious rebel represented as riding a hog, with the motto, "save my bacon;" pinned to his back. The whole city laughed. My son-in-law, Lewis, declared it was the best thing that had happened since I made him Attorney General. My son, Joseph William, thinks it worth as much as being Director on two Railroads. Calvin, my other son in law, knows it will highly please Chief Justice Pearson and the Supreme Court Bench. You know Calvin was President of the Convention, when old Pell and Sexton Gales got up, among the "aristocracy," a tirade of ridicule by calling him "Daddy Cowles." But enough of family matters.

Dr. Hawkins, you know, got me into a d—l of a scrape about the lease of the North Carolina Railroad. He now has on foot another scheme, if Barnett's bill to sell, fails. He will propose, but not through his brother, Phil., (who has had his disabilities removed, and can help,) a bill to sell $1,000,000 of the State's stock in the Road. This will be bought by the Raleigh and Gaston Road, if the scheme succeeds, which will give that Road a controlling influence in the Directory of the North Carolina Road. Judging from the fee Hawkins paid you for lobbying through the $2,000,000, for the Chatham Road, I take it he would pay heavily for a little help of the same sort, to further the present scheme.

Maj. Smith favored the lease of the North Carolina Road, and it is fair to presume he will favor this new enterprise.—(By-the-way, our friend Galloway has been pretty bitter on the Major lately, and I fear some trouble in that quarter.) The bill for the sale of $1,000,000 will not be introduced until Barnett's bill falls.

How will it do for you to return home during the recess. When the committee sits, you can leave again. I must close for want of time for writing more. Whether you return or not be assured of my highest regards in your retirement. I suppose my next must be directed to Germantown, Pa. Living or dead, no man can counte f i the sign manual of W. W. HOLDEN.

COMING HOME TO ROOST.—Some of the blessings of Radical reconstruction are coming home to those who have been most instrumental in forcing it upon us. Senator Galloway's "personal explanation" in the Senate on Thursday (see proceedings) will explain our meaning. These denunciations by a State Senator, though colored, cannot be laughed at by Major Smith, for by his influence and vote he has heaped these coals of fire upon his own head.

How singular it is that these Radical legislators do all they can to protect such officials as Littlefield, Jones and Sloan, and attack such men as are calculated to reflect some credit upon the party. We believe Governor Holden is more responsible for this condition of affairs than any other one person. His whole official conduct shows that he will trust and employ no man of character and talents. His advisers, appointees and associates are men of questionable reputation. With few exceptions those who hold office, directly or indirectly, by his appointment, are men not only without influence, but who do not command public confidence. This evil influence is corrupting the party, and it must rapidly grow worse or fall to pieces.

It is with regret that we allude to the disgraceful scene in the Senate. We have nothing to do with the private quarrels of Major Smith and Galloway, but as a citizen of North Carolina we blush, not only for the indignity offered to the State in its Senate Chamber, but for the ordinary decencies of life which Radical officials are daily in the habit of disregarding.—Wil. Journal.

SLEEPING CARS FOR THE RALEIGH ROAD.—The elegant sleeping coaches, the "Selma" and "Dalton," passed here Thursday night from over the Acquia Creek line, intended to be used in the new night arrangement between this place and Charlotte. They will, we understand, be put upon the line next week. This will prove a great accommodation to the traveling public, and will serve to throw in this direction much of the travel that now seek another route.—The temptation for traveling with us soon will be so great we fear we cannot remain at home.—Weldon News.

RAILROAD MEETING AT DOBSON.

Pursuant to the recommendation of a public meeting held at Mount Airy, which appointed delegates to meet delegates and other citizens of the county of Surry, at Dobson, a public meeting was announced to take place in the court house, at 12 o'clock on Friday 16th of November, a very large crowd assembled from all parts of the county. John Banner was appointed chairman, and H. C. Hampton, secretary.

The Hon. J. M. Cloud was called on and explained the object of the meeting, in a forcible and impressive speech.

Then on motion the chairman appointed the following named gentlemen, to wit: J. F. Graves, J. C. Gilmer, J. J. McMickle, R. R. Galloway, H. N. Wolf, John Hamlin, M. Y. Reiger, T. J. Williams, Vestal Hutchins, Samuel Scott, H. M. Waugh, C. C. Carkuham, Dr. N. A. Wolff, and Joseph Hollingsworth, a committee to prepare business for the consideration of the meeting. After this committee was announced the meeting adjourned for half an hour, at the appointed time the meeting reassembled. The committee reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we respectfully suggest to the President and Directors of the North Western North Carolina Railroad the propriety of memoralizing the Legislature to amend the charter so as to authorize the location of the Mount Airy branch of the said road through the county of Yadkin, if under all the circumstances, that route shall be deemed best.

Resolved, That we suggest, if it meet the approval of the citizens of Yadkin, Wilkes and the other counties deeply interested in this matter, and the President and Directors of the North Western North Carolina Railroad, that the charter of the Yadkin Valley branch of that road to be so amended as to remove the restrictions which require the said road to be located at any particular point along the line of the road.

Resolved, That we suggest that the charter of the Plaster Banks and Salt Works Railroad, be so amended as to remove restrictions which require the said road to be united at any designated points along the line of said road between the terminal points.

The resolutions were discussed by Messrs. Joseph Dobson, H. M. Waugh and J. F. Gray, after which they were adopted almost unanimously.

On motion the secretary was requested to furnish copies of the proceedings of the meeting for publication in the SENTINEL and Standard at Raleigh, the Sentinel at Winston, and Old North State at Salisbury.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

JOHN BANNER, Chairman,
H. C. HAMPTON, Secretary.

For the Sentinel.

DEAR SENTINEL:—We crave a little indulgence through your paper to express the touching sadness and unfeigned regret so unmistakably manifested on yesterday evening, at the Newton depot. For the first time I saw the sturdy, honest and plain old Catawba "Dutch" moved to "silent tears." A large concourse of people assembled at the depot to say "good by" to their dear friends, and among them their much esteemed and faithful pastor, the Rev. Polycarp Henkle. Between thirty and fifty took passage for the "wild West."

In Mr. Henkle's departure the entire county have sustained a serious loss. As a citizen he was much esteemed, as a useful man and a warm and generous friend.

As an advocate in the cause of Christianity he was eloquent bold and fearless—an impressive and ardent preacher, a deep and original thinker—with a grand mind reared and trained as nature formed it—a formidable and successful adversary in controversy and in every way eminently fitted for the arduous labors in the missionary field. He has accomplished much and great good in Catawba County, having organized and built up several Churches. He goes to the west to labor as a missionary; was almost inseparably attached to his people in this county, who are painfully sensible of the loss they have sustained in his leaving.

We naturally surmise whilst seeing such numbers of our best citizens leaving, why it should be thus. There certainly can be no local cause to justify such a course.

There is perhaps no county in North Carolina, blessed with greater attractions and superior advantages than Catawba county; the productiveness of our soil is unsurpassed, the climate salubrious and bracing, with the purest limpid water, "gurgling through the hiden rocks in the earth," boundless and inexhaustable mines of gold and iron, and peopled with thrifty, honest and industrious farmers and mechanics, of the German descent, famously characterized as the best people on the face of the earth, with a society undisturbed by political or domestic dissensions, with our credit unimpaired, not a bankrupt in the county, and few who shelter themselves under the homestead law. We have every reason to feel proud and amply enough to justify the assertion that in every view to be taken of us we are not surpassed by any county in the State, and have greater attractions than many others of greater notoriety. We hav'nt even a Ku Klux, whilst our sister counties are said to be distressingly infested with the aforesaid terror—occasionally we read the SENTINEL and heartily endorse the manly course you have adopted in exposing the infamous frauds and machinations of that bastard, whitewashed Republican party, which has entailed distress and ruin upon our State, and is now rapidly driving us into disgrace and bankruptcy, if they do not pause in this hellish career, repudiation is inevitable—and thus we go.

Yours &c.,
CATAWBA.

THE NAME OF THE WHITE MAN RUN OVER BY THE TRAIN AT MARLBORO'—SUSPICIONS OF FOUL PLAY.—The body of the white man run over by the train at Marlboro' Saturday night of last week has been identified as that of John D. Walker; whose home is in Columbia township within about six miles of Long Creek. He was in the city that Saturday evening about dark and then paid ex-Sheriff Bunting the sum of $60. He said he was to start home immediately and it is believed he was to walk. It is certain that he left perfectly sober. During the early part of the past week the family of the deceased feared some evil had befallen him because of his continued absence. Hearing that a man had been killed by the train at Marlboro' his son and brothers visited that place and disinterred the body, which was identified as that of Walker, and taken to his home for reinterment. This was either Wednesday or Thursday when friends were in the city making inquiries regarding the deceased.

There are whispers among the dead man's relatives of foul play, and with at any definite reason being given they suspect that he was murdered and placed on the track. They think that he had a considerable sum of money about him when he left here Saturday night. About thirty cents was all that was found on the body, we believe, when the Coroner held his inquest. The coat of the dead man was not on the body then but laying beside it. No injuries other than those evidently caused by the train were discovered on the body.—Wilmington Journal.

Special Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.

The Virginia question goes over until after the holidays, much to the annoyance of not only Virginians, who had a right to expect earlier action, but also of such men as Gen. Farnsworth and other republicans, who do not disguise the feeling that Congress is acting in bad faith in not giving Virginia earlier attention. At the meeting of the committee on reconstruction on Saturday, C. C. Round, of Manassas, Commonwealth's attorney for Prince William county, Va., was examined in relation to local political affairs in the late canvass, and the manner in which justice is administered in the courts in which he practices, the coloring to which was high, and the assertions not at all calculated to inspire the committee with a favorable opinion of the progress of reconstruction in Virginia, provided credence could be given them. In his cross-examination he said that he had been in Virginia but one year, and that there was now pending against him a suit for slander brought by a colored man, but, he believed, at the instigation of some white men, to effect a division in the radical party of his county. He stated that Gov. Wells only represented a few federal officeholders, and that he (Round) spoke for ninety-nine hundredths of the republican party of the State, and did not want the State admitted without the test-oath imposed upon the members of the Legislature. He was somewhat severe upon the appointees of Gen. Canby and the federal officeholders in the State.

I. D. Budd, of Loudoun county, by permission, gave a statement of affairs in Loudoun county, and of the quiet and order that he believed prevailed throughout the State; of his belief in the purpose of the Legislature to faithfully carry out the constitution, especially in regard to colored people, and expressed his astonishment at the statements of Round.

Mr. Round in his anxiety to make as bad a case as possible, overleaped the mark and disgusted the members of the committee. Among others present in the committee room were Congressmen Charles H. Porter, E. V. Clark, Mr. Downey and others, who prompted questions and made suggestions to Round. Messrs. Porter and Clark are here armed with a series of resolutions adopted at a recent radical republican meeting held in Richmond. These resolutions endorse the action of the convention held in Richmond on November 24th and 25th. They also recommend the application of the test oath by Congress to the members of the present Legislature (which they designate as rebel) "as a condition precedent to admission to representation, so that the safety of loyalty may be secured." The resolutions also endorse Charles H. Porter and disapprove of the course of Governor Wells. They were presented to the committee, but had very little weight.

One excuse given for the postponement of action is that the reports heretofore ordered have not been printed, and Gen. Butler expressed himself in severe terms toward the government printing office officials because the printing had not been attended to. This excuse is, however, a mere subterfuge, as no one will read the report when it is presented. All that members will look at will be the bill, and they will take it for granted that the explanations made by members of the committee are correct.

The anti-admission party of the State has industriously circulated a rumor that the President has expressed regrets that he recommended the immediate admission of the State, on account of facts which have recently come to his knowledge. There is not one word of truth in this. On the contrary in all his interviews with Gov. Walker, Mr. McKenzie and others (and he has had several conversations with them lately,) he has expressed an earnest desire for the immediate admission of the State. And it cannot be delayed much longer. If the reconstruction committee does not act promptly after the recess, Gen. Farnsworth or some other member will bring the House to a direct vote on the question on their individual responsibility, and will demand the admission of the State without imposing additional requirements. It is not doubted that a sufficient number of conservative fair-minded republicans will be found to act with the democrats, and give the State representation in spite of any obstacles that may be thrown in the way by the reconstruction committee.

The reports of assassinations having become so frequent in certain districts in the South, an appeal was recently made by the commissioner of internal revenue to General Sherman for troops to assist the revenue officers in suppressing illicit distillation and in collecting the revenue generally. The troubles seem to be principally in a circuit comprising the eighth Virginia district, which is in the southwestern part of the State; the seventh North Carolina district, in the western part of the State; the third South Carolina district; third and fourth Georgia district; first and second and a portion of the third Tennessee district, and the southern portion of the eighth Kentucky district. These districts are adjacent, forming a section of country on either side of the Blue Ridge mountains, and it is here that illicit distillation is carried on to the greatest extent.

General Sherman thinks the government has better use for the troops than in enforcing revenue laws. He believes it has a tendency to demoralize the army, and in manners the effect which such surveillance has had on the troops of the British army. Again, the collection of the revenue belongs to the civil department of the government, and it is only when an enforcement of the laws is impossible that the services of the army should be called into requisition.—Commissioner Delano has therefore determined to arm and mount all the assistant assessors employed in the districts above mentioned, and empower them to collect the revenue and suppress frauds of whatever character. The only difficulty in the adoption of this plan is that it has been decided by the first comptroller that the pay of an assistant assessor ceases the instant he leaves the district for which he was appointed, and in making raids it might be necessary to cross boundary lines. However, the experiment will be tried, without delay, and it is believed a few weeks of active service will rid these districts of the illicit stills, and bring to justice those who have been defrauding the revenue and still defy the laws.

Senator Wilson visited the Executive Mansion on Saturday morning, and introduced to the President a Florida delegation, consisting of Hon. C. M. Hamilton, Representative from that State, Bishop Pierce, a colored member of the State Senate, Gen. Cass, Adjutant General, and J. C. Gibbs, Secretary of State, who called upon the President to send troops to the State for the purpose of aiding the civil authorities in executing the law and protecting the lives of the citizens, as a number of assassinations had recently occurred there.—The President, in reply, promised that he would confer with the Secretary of War, and forward troops to the State if it could be done.

M. Topin believes that his article in Le Correspondant have proved that the Man in the Iron Mask was one Matthioli, agent of the Duke of Mantua, and who betrayed Louis XIV. in a negotiation touching the surrender of the fortress of Casal.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—We regret to learn that Mr. F. J. Lord of this city was accidentally shot while hunting with Mr. A. W. Reiger at his plantation in Brunswick county, about four miles distant, Friday afternoon last. These gentlemen, as we learn, had taken their stands for deer. Before the deer ran by, it seems that Mr. Lord had changed his stand without the knowledge of Mr. Reiger. The animal passed, and Mr. Reiger fired, and being in the direction in which Mr. Lord then was, one of the buckshot with which the gun was charged took effect in that gentleman's thigh, causing a painful flesh wound. He was at once brought to the city, and surgical aid obtained. The wound was probed, but it has been impossible to find the ball. Though painful, it is by no means serious. —Wil. Journal.

Next year will witness a celebration of some interest to the commercial world, as it is the two hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the bank of Messrs. H. Kustner & Co., at Leipsic. The house was founded in 1670, and has ever since remained in the hands of the family, an event almost unprecedented in the history of modern banking.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1869.

☞ THEO. S. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The telegraph rather crowds us this morning, so that we cannot give as extended notice to new advertisements as we desire.

W. H. Jones & Co., offer a new top buggy.

And A. D. Royster & Brother have lots of goodies and toys, a great variety of them, pretty, nice and cheap; and the juveniles and their parents flock there, and go away with bundles on bundles of all sorts of pretty things.

THE CLOSING CONCERT.—The Tremaine Brothers and Mr. Pierson gave their closing concert last night at Tucker Hall to a fair house, though not so full as was expected, nor as the entertainment merited. They are certainly excellent musicians, and very clever gentlemen, and not only have they given satisfaction as artists to those who have attended their concerts, but they have also made many personal friends in our city.

At the close of the Concert last night, the votes were counted, as announced, when it was found that they were nearly all cast for the M. E. Church, it being generally understood that no other denomination would contend for it.

We hope to welcome the Messrs. Tremaine and Pierson to our city again at no distant day.

ORNAMENTAL AND USEFUL.—These are the characteristics that ought to be sought for in making selections of Christmas and New Year gifts for our friends, and especially for the children. A single impression, gained from a book or a picture, may be so wrought into the sentiment and feeling of the young, as to shape their fate for life and even fashion their destiny for eternity. Such an impression, so gained, linked with the memory of a departed parent or friend, often influences the subject of it through a long life, wooing to the good and beautiful; the pure and holy.

If these things be so, then call in at Mr. Alfred Williams' Bookstore and inspect his stock of beautiful Bibles, Prayer Books, Photograph Albums, and splendid Chromo pictures, and the great variety of presentation books, and see if you cannot make choice of something for a present to a relative or friend, that is both ornamental and useful.

"Tobacco surely must be good,
So all the planters say,
Merchants join the common crowd
And its heavy taxes pay
'Tis not for physic nor for food
For stable nor for stall,
Sugar nor salt, water nor wood
But yet it answers all."
—Old Poem.

Yes, tobacco is a very good thing—that is, good tobacco. We like that sort, and we know exactly always where it is to be had; but we don't always tell—cause why? we have no motive. We know where it is manufactured, too. (We are speaking of smoking tobacco.) Z. J. Lyon & Co., at Durhams N. C., put up the kind of tobacco we have alluded to, and any one sending them an order and failing to get a first rate article, may charge the bill to us.

U. S. COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock.—The whole of the day was taken up in the case of Rae on the Demise of Jos. M. J. Rogers vs. Doe and Benj. W. Goodwyn.—Bragg for the plaintiff, Barnes and Peeples for defendant. The argument relating to the conflict of laws touching the constitutionality of the homestead law was very interesting, so much so that we shall hereafter give a full synopsis of the points at issue. The argument on both sides was conducted with marked ability.

From the following synopsis of the opinion of Judge Brooks in the above case, it will be seen that he decides aversely to the homestead exemption, in case of old debts, and differently from the Supreme Court of N. C., as shown by the opinion of Judge Reade at the last term of that Court.

His Honor regretted that he was compelled to dissent from a majority of the Supreme Court, in the case of Hill vs Vessler. He thought that the very authorities cited by Judge Reade were conclusive against him. His sympathies were in favor of the homestead, the law, as he believed, was against it. His Honor commented upon the opinion of Chief Justice Taney, which he declared was clearly against the constitutionality of the exemption, and that of Judge Orr of S. C., which he considered to be better rhetorically than it was legally.

He thought that Courts could not keep up with the progress of the age, until the Legislature and Constitution had opened up a way for them.

The opinion has not yet been written out, and for the present we can give only the above brief synopsis.

NEW BOOKS.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Dick & Fitzgerald, 18, Ann Street, New York, the following new books:

How to amuse an evening party, illustrated with nearly two hundred wood cuts.

CHERRY PECTORAL TROCHES is a new article just out, prepared by Rushton & Co., one of the oldest Drug firms in New York, located for the last 30 years under the Astor House.

These Troches will be found superior to any in market for the cure of colds, coughs, sore throats and bronchial affections.—Very pleasant to the taste and act like a charm in giving immediate relief; none of these nauseating cubebs in them.

Sold by the Druggists.

Five prisoners escaped from the Wilmington jail on Sunday last. Four of them were subsequently recaptured.

So says the Journal.

KNOCKING AROUND.—This occupation, whatever it may be, is a very common one, we gather, among our citizens, especially among our young men. Coming down the moral side of Fayetteville street, last night, we heard a merchant invite a young man into his store; "no, thank you," was the answer, "I believe I will knock around." A little further on we heard one ask another if he were going to the Tremaine concert; "Well, I don't know but I may, by and-by," was the reply, "I will knock around awhile, first." A gentleman called in at our office and was asked to have a seat, but he declined, saying he would "knock around a little and then go home." We came to the conclusion that there must be a good deal of "knocking around," going on. Some "knock around" in one direction and some in another. We don't know whether the occupation is profitable, but suppose it must be from the number that seem to be engaged in it.

PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., through the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, for the State of N. C., and south of the James Two policies upon the life of J. A. Moore, of Raleigh, No. 17,296, $10,000; No. 19,416, $5,000. This is but another illustration added to the many already made known to the public, of what this old and reliable Company is doing in our State.

The following note is appended by permission:

MR. CROW:—Please accept my thanks for your untiring energy and perseverance in procuring for myself and child, the amount due us, from your Company, also my appreciation of your promptness and kindness in our behalf.

Very Respectfully,
MRS. JAMES A. MOORE.

Undefined Ailments.

There are many ailments, trying in their nature, but the symptoms of which are not sufficiently specific to enable physicians to classify them under any particular head. As a general rule they arise from a general debility of the whole organization, but their primary cause, in at least three cases out of five, is a lack of brisk vital action in the stomach and liver. Stimulate and tone the relaxed digestive and secretive organs, and bodily ease, health and vigor will follow the treatment. Among all the medicines which have been recommended as conducive to this end, none has been administered with such uniform and entire success as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Its ingredients were selected from the vegetable kingdom, originally, with a view to the invigoration of the physique and the constitution, and also for their anti-bilious and slightly laxative properties. Twenty odd years of experience has proved that these herbal restoratives were wisely chosen and have been judiciously apportioned in this celebrated preparation. Not only as a specific for indigestion and all kindred complaints but as a household remedy for all the minor ailments incident to humanity, it has obtained a reputation based on unimpeachable testimony, which fairly eclipses that of any other proprietory or official medicine in use.

THE RUTHERFORD Star is "informed that Judge Henry made an important decision on the circuit just closed, which affects the rights of minors arising under the provisions of the Homestead. The point arose on the application of Lewis, administrator, to the court for leave to sell real estate to pay the debts of his intestate, Edney, deceased. It appears that the deceased died during the war, and that owing to stay laws, military orders, &c., the administrator had not yet been able to close up the estate. To his application the heirs at law responded, alleging that one of their number had not yet attained his majority, and praying to be allowed under the provisions of the Constitution to have the Homestead exemption laid off according to law. His Honor held that they were so entitled, on the broad principle that the law was enacted for the benefit of the "helpless" ones—widows and minors. We understand that in this opinion the leading members of the bar concurred."

SINGULAR SPECTACLE.—"A goodly sized audience," "inside the walls" "of Tucker Hall" on Monday night, "enjoying" itself.

Mr. J. S. Davis, living a few miles from Charlotte died very suddenly on Friday last. Until within a few hours previous to his death, he had been in usual good health.

The Christ's Church Sunday School in Newbern, will give a series of charades and tableaux during Christmas week.

Goldsboro will have a grand ball on the 27th.

An attempt was made to rob the Confectionary store of Mr. T. C. Wingate, in Asheville, last week.

ROBBERY.—On Sunday night, about eight o'clock, the store of Mr. W. H. Pearce, on South Front street, was opened from a rear window. The thief, or thieves, were successful entirely, carrying off a barrel of flour, a box of cheese, two tubs of lard and a number of pairs of shoes.

This robbery was conducted in a singularly bold manner. A lady in an adjoining house saw a negro man coming from the rear of the store with a barrel on his shoulder, and asked him who he was. Another negro then came from behind the store, and gave the name of a man who resided upon the lot. Suspecting nothing, the lady allowed them to pass without further question. Had she raised an outcry the thieves could easily have been apprehended, as many persons were on the streets at the time.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—No Republican spoke against the Georgia bill last night. Bingham will speak against it to-day.

Voorhees is arguing against the Georgia bill. Dawes, of Mass., asked questions which indicated his intention to vote for it.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Bienville met the gunboats at sea, sailing freely. The scheme to blow up the Spanish war steamer, "Pizarro," was frustrated by Saturday night's storm.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The Spanish Republicans have been banished for intermeddling with the French revolutionists.

Rochefort said in the Corps, "you have only one fear, it is the Republic; she is near at hand and will arrange the wrongs of Frenchmen and Spaniards." Pavrade, implying, threatened that the moment the Republicans exchanged speech for action, the Government would reduce them to impotence.

Tuesday Midnight Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec 21.—There were a number of confirmations in the Senate to-day.

Revenue $750 000.

Assistant Assessors are to be mounted throughout the South, and whenever it is necessary use force.

SENATE.—Turnbull urged the consideration of the bill admitting Virginia. Thayer thought this useless as the bill could not pass before the holidays. Furthermore he had information from Virginia unsatisfactory to him. He intimated that there had been fraud in the Virginia elections.

The bill compensating loyal States for vessels lost during the war, involving $ 80,000, goes to the President.

HOUSE.—At 5 o'clock the Georgia bill passed and goes to the President in the following shape: An act to promote the reconstruction of Georgia. Be it enacted that Georgia be and is hereby authorized and directed forthwith by proclamation to summon all persons elected to the General Assembly, as appears by the Proclamation of General Meade, dated June 25th 1868, to appear on some day certain, (named in the Proclamation,) at Atlanta and thereupon said General Assembly shall proceed to perfect its organization in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the United States, and according to the provisions of this act.

2d. That when members so elected to the Senate and House of Representatives shall have convened, every member and every person claiming to be elected as a member of the Senate or House of Representatives, shall in addition to taking the oath required by the constitution of Georgia, shall also take and subscribe and file in the office of the Secretary of the State of Georgia one of the following oaths or affirmations:

"I do solemnly swear or affirm, that I have never held the office or exercised the duties of Senator or Representative in Congress, nor been a member of the Legislature of any State of the United States, nor held any civil office created by law for the administration of any general law of a State, or for the administration of justice in any State, or under the laws of the United States, nor held any office in the military or naval service of the United St tes, and, thereafter, engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United states, or gave aid or comfort to its enemies, or rendered, except in consequence of direct physical force, any support or aid to any insurrection or rebellion against the United States, nor held any office under or given any support to any government acting inimitably to the United States, or levying war against the United States, so help me God, or on pains or penalties of perjury, as the case may be." Or the following oath or affirmation, namely:

"I do solemnly swear or affirm, that I have been relieved, by an act of Congress, from disabilities as provided by the 14th amendment, so help me God, or on pains or penalties of perjury, as the case may be."

Which oath or affiation, when so filed, shall be entered on the record by the Secretary of State of Georgia, and said oath, or affirmation or a copy of the record thereof, duly certified to by the said Secretary of State, shall be evidence in all Courts and places. Every person claiming to be so elected, who shall refuse, decline or neglect or be unable to take one of said oaths or affirmations shall not be admitted to a seat in the senate or House of Representatives.

3rd. That if any person claiming to be elected to the Senate or House shall falsely take either of said oaths, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury and shall suffer the pains and penalties thereof and may be tried therefor by the Circuit Court of the United States for the district of Georgia in which district the crime was committed. The Jurisdiction of said Court shall be sole and exclusive for the purpose aforesaid.

4th. That persons elected and entitled to compose such legislature and who shall comply with the provisions of this act shall thereupon proceed to reorganize the senate and House by the election of proper officers.

5th. That if any person shall by force, violence or intimidation, willfully hinder or interrupt any person elected from taking either of oaths or affirmations prescribed, or from participating in proceedings of the Senate or House after having taken one of the said oaths or affirmations and otherwise complied with this act, he shall be deemed guilty of felony and may be tried therefor by the Circuit or District Court, of the United States for the District of Georgia in which the offence may be committed and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor, for not less than two nor more than ten years, and the jurisdiction of said Courts shall be sole and exclusive.

6th. That it is hereby declared, that the exclusion of any person elected as aforesaid and being otherwise qualified, from participation in the proceedings of the Senate or House, upon ground of race, color or previous condition of servitude, would be illegal and revolutionary and is hereby prohibited.

7th. That upon application of the Governor of Georgia the President of the United states shall employ such military or naval forces of the United States as may be necessary to enforce and execute the preceding provisions of this act.

8th. That the Legislature shall ratify the 15th amendment proposed to the constitution of the United States, before Senators and Representatives from Georgia are admitted to seats in Congress."

Bullock wrote a letter to Butler, assuring him that upon the passage of the above bill, he would issue a proclamation convening the Legislature on the 13th of January.

Bingham and Farnsworth are the only Republicans who voted nay. A resolution passed extending recess to the 10th of January.

A MAGNIFICENT
NORTH CAROLINA
PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE PLANTATION KNOWN AS "OAKLAND," (formerly the property of Dr. Samuel Kerr,) situated in Rowan County, N. C., on the Lincolnton Road, 11 miles from Salisbury, and about 6 miles from China Grove Station on the North Carolina Railroad.

This Plantation is one of the most desirable in the State, and in its improvements unsurpassed. It contains 1650 Acres, one-half cleared: a large quantity of Meadow and Bottom Land, over 200 Acres under cover of a Mill Pond for fifty years. The residue is heavily timbered with splendid Oak and Hickory.

The Family Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15,000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 years from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Flour—with three runs of Stones; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond, to run the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building, resting on a story of rock foundation, are two stories and a half of brick above, with a wall on the first story two feet thick, and could be converted into a factory. The Residence is well adapted, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds, if not more, of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Ennis, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown Mock & Co., H. H. Helper, Esq., or Col. H. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm Phifer, Esq., Dr. R. Nye Hutchinson.

For Terms of Sale, &c., apply to Hon. J. H. Wilson, Charlotte, N. C.

DR. LAWRENCE'S
Highly Concentrated Compound
FLUID EXTRACT OF Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

Prepared Solely by
J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.
ORGANIC CHEMIST,
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 18, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect your obedient servant,
R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

Princess Anne Court House, Va June 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapatic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Diuretic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives the support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public.
Yours, truly;
T. F. FENTRESS, M.D.

Koskoo cures SCROFULA IN ITS WORST FORMS. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from scrofula since childhood. She had thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GENERALLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.
With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c.,
A. W. MILLS.

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of debilitation—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, fully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator.
Yours, &c.,
JOSEPH E. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!
CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo is AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.
With much gratitude I am respectfully yours, &c.,
MRS. M. E. A. NELSON.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.
I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant,
O. B. MEARS.

Pacific, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.
I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant,
O. B. MEARS.

No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pacific, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced taking your Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine.
JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE,
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of Koskoo RESTORED ME TO HEALTH.
Yours, truly,
J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., October 28, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have admitted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression.

UNANIMOUSLY

☞ By reference to the accompanying lists of Text Books used in the Schools of North Carolina in 1852, and those adopted this year, it will be seen that, in nearly every important particular,

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BANNER, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY, Prin. Clas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 23, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. ROBINSON, Mount Olive, Oct. 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools.—J. H. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 29th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. A. G. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Prof. Smith's "Natural Philosophy" received. Am glad to see it with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction.—G. W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1856, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined Monteith's Geography and Peck's Gaond's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. BRYDEN, Prin. Male Academy Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the only set of physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VATCHAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this State of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the dividings and all the orders; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have found no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. W. E. HARRIS, Principal High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible as makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM. FINCHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CROSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic at next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—STRICKEN IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. GRAHAM, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. D. D. BRANSON, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works inexpressibly superior in many respects.—Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. Jos. H. FOX, President Stanesburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, state Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Baughan, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Gray, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MARRITT, Chatham county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 23, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the State.—Statesville American, 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, over 1,000 more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Connecticut than any other Company, British or American.

To see what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which
